THOMAS JONES, Sergt. S. S., U. S. A.

General Items.

—Judge Bross has adjourned probate court.

—Large stock clothing to be sold out without reserve, at C. Hanny's.

—Gentle Gerould is at home again. He looks as youthful and jovial as ever.

—Sheriff Irwin is still absent, looking after the man who has too many wives.

—R. J. Cundiff is putting a new foundation under his store on Eighth street.

—Look at the nice gents' suits for $30. you can buy at Heilbron & Well's.

—Mr. Hyslop, of the First National Bank of this city, is expected home today.

—For boys' clothing of all descriptions and lowest prices, go to Heilbron & Well's.

—Andrew Lohr, the soda water manufacturer, recently lost one of his team of fine sorrel mares.

—Will the Citizens' Association debate the levee question? or is that outside of the Articles of Association?

—Judge Bross is one of the busiest men in the city, and he very successfully runs all the irons he has in the fire.

—Heilbron & Well are selling gentlemen's hats at astonishing low prices, and have a complete line of them.

—Don't forget the present ten yards calico you can get by buying $7 worth of dry goods at Heilbron & Well's.

—The fog on Sunday night was a great success. The "Cat" transfer boat got lost in it, and shrieked like a Comanche Indian.

—Wm. H. Morris' unrivaled minstrels will "show" at Charleston to-morrow night. Joe Courtney has promised them a big house.

—Ladies' wrappers and suits at very low rates and newest styles can be found at Heilbron & Well's, 142 and 144 Commercial avenue.

—Wilson, the man who is doing the Spiritual business at the Liberal Religious hall, is no slouch. He is one of the best guessers we ever heard guess.

—Large stock gents' furnishing goods at very low prices, at C. Hanny's.

—The congregations at the Methodist church on Sunday were much larger than usual, owing to the presence of Presiding Elder Pierce, who preached both morning and evening.

—The Methodists are very much pleased with their new minister. He preached a little sermon Sunday night last, and those who listened to him say it was an excellent one.

—Morris' unrivaled minstrels, after they have astonished and delighted the people of Charleston, will, we have been informed, make a descent upon Mound City.

—Large stock ladies' furnishing goods, to be sold very cheap at C. Hanny's.

—A new building, to be used as a passenger depot, is now being erected by the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern railroad company, at their incline at Bird's Point, opposite this city.

—The Mississippi county, Missouri, fair association will begin their fair at Charleston this morning, and continue it until Friday evening. From the present outlook the fair promises to be one of the most successful ever held by that body.

—We are anxious to buy a smaller engine than we now use, and therefore offer our engine for sale. It is ten horse-power, and as good as new. We will also sell the boiler we now employ in the manufacture of steam. We offer engine and boiler at a great bargain.

—Mose Harrell has a very sensible pipe water theory, and a man who manifests as much county sense as he, ought to be made either county commissioner or county treasurer. The election occurs in November. Mose; which office do you prefer?

—Large stock dry goods, without reserve, at very low prices, at C. Hanny's.

—The fog was so dense on the rivers Sunday night, that it was with difficulty the transfer steamer Julius S. Morgan could be landed on her return trip from Bird's Point. Angelo McBride was at the wheel, however, and brought her in all right.

—The rain the skies promised to us on Saturday has not yet been received. The clouds disappeared on Saturday night, and Sunday and Monday were sunshiny days. Maybe a little prayer would bring a few drops; and maybe Wilson's spirits could be induced to give us a bucket full or two.

men whom the weary traveler is ever glad to fall in with.

—Large stock of dress goods, merinos, alpaca, poplins, cashmeres, very cheap, at C. Hanny's.

—Mr. Charles Kyle, who arrived in this city on Friday, left again for his place of business in St. Louis on Sunday night.

—Next Monday, the fourth of October, the great fair at St. Louis begins. Many of the citizens of Cairo are preparing to attend.

—The Rev. B. Y. George has accepted the call of the Presbyterian Church of this city. He is expected to arrive in Cairo this week.

—The funeral of Caroline Svoboda, which took place yesterday afternoon, was very largely attended by her former friends and acquaintances.

—A number of our citizens left yesterday morning for Blandville, to attend the Ballard county circuit court, which commenced yesterday morning.

—The finest stock of children's cloaks, also caps and bonnets, at lower prices than ever, can be found at Heilbron & Well's, 142 and 144 Commercial avenue.

—Burger, the extensive Commercial avenue dry goods merchant, has removed to No. 124 Commercial avenue, the room formerly occupied by W. B. Rockwell.

—A. Hally, the Washington avenue tin and stove-dealer, has removed his establishment to the new building recently put up by Mrs. S. B. Halliday.

—Nothing was done in the police courts yesterday. There was not a single arrest made on Saturday or Sunday. Everything throughout the city was very quiet.

—In a game of base ball between the Comet and Defiance Clubs of Cairo, played on the Thirty-fourth street grounds, Sunday afternoon, the Comets were slightly demoralized.

—Mr. H. C. Wells, cashier of the Alexander County Bank, has bought the residence of Mr. J. H. Phillips, in the upper part of town. Mr. Wells paid three thousand five hundred dollars for the place.

—The Hon. Edwin Beecher, of Montgomery, Alabama, and C. A. Beecher, Attorney General of the Ohio & Mississippi railroad, have been spending a few days in the city, visiting their niece, Mrs. Pace.

—To the smokers of this city we would say, if you want an excellent cigar, go to H. Myers, the levee tobacconist, and try his "Key West Perfection." They are without doubt the finest cigar for the money that can be found in the city.

—Large stock of domestic prints, muslins, and tickings, at low prices, at C. Hanny's.

—There will be a meeting of the United Friends of Temperance at Odd-Fellows' Hall, this (Tuesday) evening, for the purpose of election of officers and other work of the order. Punctual attendance is requested. C. LANE, W. P.

—We said that Wilson, the spiritual lecturer, would close his eyes in Liberal Religious hall on Sunday night and talk. We were mistaken. He talked in the hall on Sunday night and closed the eyes of almost everybody in the room. We cannot say that he is, as the boys express it, "lightning," but we do not believe any person will take issue with us when we say he is "old oil."

—Sproat's oysters have been tested and have proved to be the best that ever came to this city. He will have another shipment to arrive Wednesday, a. m., and on Saturday, a. m. Those who can appreciate a good oyster will not fail to call at the time specified. He will not sell an oyster he cannot warrant as first-class. Those who were disappointed in the first lot can depend upon a supply hereafter.

—Thursday—day after to-morrow—is the Hebrew new year—the first day of the 5536th year since the creation. By the Hebrew rule—we learn from that distinguished authority, the Paducah News—the new year never comes on Sunday, Wednesday, or Friday, and the Passover, six months later, never comes on Monday, Wednesday or Friday.

—Large stock of woolen goods, flannels, linseys and sheeting flannels, very cheap, at C. Hanny's.

—A correspondent of the Sun wishes to know why we "deal undeserved tumultuous praise to the Mayor for putting the streets in order." Maybe he deserves it. More and better work has been done on the streets under Mayor Winter than was done under any former administration that preceded it for years; and as much work as possible is being done on the sidewalks. It may be the credit for this work is not due to the Mayor, but since he receives all the blame for what is not done why should he not receive commendation for the good things that are done?

—Wilson, the Spiritual man, challenges the Christian ministers of Cairo to debate with him the proposition: "That the Bible (James' translation) is a record of Spiritual manifestations, of like character with those of modern Spiritualism." This is not the language of the proposition, but the matter of it bunglingly expressed. He will meet either one or all of them on the platform of the Free Religious hall, or on any other platform; but he don't want them to listen to him, and then, in a cowardly manner, shoot at him from the masked battery of the pulpit. O, for one hour of Rev. Dr. Thayer!—but, then, it would be really awful if we had Thayer, and Wilson should, as the rude fellows of the tap room say, "chaw him up, bar and all," and, by the way, we fear that this man Wilson is a chawer of no mean ability.

—We stated yesterday morning that James Cassidy, who had been arrested for stealing in a house of ill fame, had been discharged, Mayor Winter and another person testifying that Cassidy had been with them from 12 to 3 o'clock on the night of the robbery. This item, hastily written, has left a false impression—the impression that His Honor keeps bad company and late hours. The fact is, the Mayor testified that, on the night of the robbery, he saw Cassidy at the Greeley fire at 12 o'clock, that Cassidy worked at the fire and was doing the duty of a fireman until 3 o'clock. This was His Honor's testimony. Our report of it, while it gave the substance of it fairly, was, we are convinced, liable to leave a false impression; and therefore this explanation.

—The Trustees of the Cairo City Property, when they gave to the Cairo & St. Louis railroad company the right of way over the Mississippi levee, bound that company in an agreement to protect the levee from the encroachments of the river. The resident trustee, Col. Taylor, several months ago notified the company that certain work ought to be done under this agreement, but the company did nothing. Whether it intends to do anything we do not know. We have heard that Mr. Canda had consulted a government official, and that the official who has charge of river improvements above Cairo on the Mississippi had promised to visit this city and ascertain what work ought to be done here. But the official has not yet arrived, or, if he has, somebody has kept him carefully concealed; and, if Mr. Canda is doing anything, information of the fact has not reached us.

Probably Mr. Canda and the government official believe that it is imprudent in the people of Cairo to desire to know their intentions; but they should remember that the people of Cairo have much interest in their proposed action, and they should, at least, give us a hint of their intentions.

—We attended the Sunday night lecture of Wilson, the Spiritualist, who is now talking and selling books and papers to our people. We were very much pleased with him. He is the only Spiritualist medium that has visited Cairo during our residence in the city, who was not, in our opinion, both a bore and a humbug. All the rest have either talked the flattest commonplaces in the most possible language, or else have indulged in tricks the most transparent and called them "spiritual manifestations." Wilson is, as all persons must be who talk much on the threadbare subject of religion, sometimes weak in his arguments, but he is generally an incisive and logical speaker, and is not often uninteresting. He is a man of intellect, up in his business, and, as he said on Sunday night, having the most absolute confidence in himself, he would not hesitate to tell the devil that Wilson knows all about him and his ancestors. After the lecture Mr. Wilson undertook to do, without touching the head of the subject, all that a phrenologist could do; without touching the body, as definitely describe its ailments as the most skillful physician after careful examination could do; and without either seeing, hearing or knowing the person, tell events in his life, giving dates and details. What is more, Wilson did what he undertook to do in this regard. He is as glib and accurate a phrenologist as Fowler; but, then, Dr. Parker says phrenology is a humbug. He did diagnosis disease correctly; and he did tell of events that had happened in the lives of several persons in the room. Of course, he is nothing but a good guesser, who has studied human nature thoroughly, and is helped out by the possession of that mysterious something called clairvoyance. He deals greatly in generalities, intimates more than he says and often blunders; but, upon the whole, he is remarkable in his demonstrations of the possession of a wonderful power he calls spiritual mediumship, but which is—something else. He is worth hearing; and nobody will lose anything by seeing him, for he is a fine looking old gentleman—one of the olden school infected by modern ismism.

—Mr. M. B. Harrell, in his Gazette issued yesterday, makes the following true remarks: "Unimproved town lots in the city of Cairo are valued for purposes of taxation at a higher figure than like town lots are valued in Chicago; twenty-five per cent. higher than they are in Quincy or Peoria; sixty per cent. higher than in Springfield and Bloomington, and more than one hundred per cent. higher than they are in any city of like population in Illinois. These facts were brought to the comprehension of our State Board of Equalization through the efforts of our ex-Mayor Wilson, and material reductions were made, in one instance as high as fifty per cent. But as fast as the Board put the valuation down our county assessors put it up again, until finally our august equalizers concluded that we ought to know what our own property is worth, and then let our figures stand almost unchanged. Meanwhile central and northern Illinois profited by the intimations thrown out by the Board, and put their realty down, until they can, when compared with Alexander county property holders, scarcely be considered taxpayers at all."

—The interest among the horsemen in this section, in the coming races at Charleston, Missouri, is unusually noticeable. Some of the fastest and most noted trotting, pacing and running horses to be found in Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky and Tennessee, numbering between seventy and seventy-five head, had arrived in the town on Sunday night, and more were expected. Among the horses best known to our turfmen are the running horses "Pin Tad," owned by Tom Logan, of Murphysboro; Conlon and Moran's "McNairy," owned at Charleston, and a horse called the "Knight of St. Louis," owned in Jackson county. There are several other fast runners to be entered in the free for all running race, but the three horses named above are considered the only ones that stand any chance of carrying off the purse.

There is a diversity of opinion as regards the ability of "Pin Tad," "McNairy" and "Knight of St. Louis," some believing that "Pin Tad" will go under the string first, others that "Knight of St. Louis" will be first to get there, while the horse "McNairy" will be backed to a man by the Missourians. The race will be very exciting, and a big pile of money will change hands, it matters not which horse wins. A large number of trotting horses are in training, and the free for all race is looked forward to with much interest. The most experienced horsemen to be found in the city on Sunday gave it as their opinion that the horse that carries away the money will have to trot between two minutes and thirty-five seconds—time seldom equaled in this section of country. There are pacing horses on the grounds that are claimed to be good for two minutes and thirty seconds when called on. Among these is a horse owned by Tom Logan, and "Bob Lee" and "Billy Boy," both owned by Maurice Moran. There is also a Kentucky mare that will start in the free for all pacing race that is said to be "oil from the can," and it is believed it will take a hard struggle to beat her. Other horses by the score are entered for the races named, but those we have mentioned are looked upon as the ones that are most likely to win. All in all the races of this year promise to be the most exciting ever seen on the Charleston course.

CIRCUIT COURT.

September Term, David J. Baker Presiding.

Nineteenth Day.

—After hearing several motions, the case of the People vs. Safford and Morrill was taken up by the court. It is case in attachment for the violation of an injunction granted against the Cairo & Vincennes railroad. The injunction prohibited the C. & V. R. R. from switching or standing any car above Sixth street, on Commercial avenue. Morrill and Safford secured by petition an order allowing them to build a switch between Nineteenth and Twentieth streets, to switch cars, and to stand and unload cars on said switch. There is quite a fight about the facts in issue. After hearing the arguments of Messrs. D. T. Linegar and J. H. Mulkey, for the People, and W. B. Gilbert for the defendants, the court took the case under consideration, and will not, in all probability, report his decision for several days.

—The new panel of the petit jury was then made up.

COMMERCIAL.

CAIRO, ILL., MONDAY EVENING, September 27, 1875.

After the dense fog, that greeted our people this morning, had cleared away the sun shone bright, and the day proved as balmy and beautiful as a May day. Were it not for the continued drought and the ever-present dust, the weather and season would be considered delightful.

The market continues, like the dust, to hold its condition with a remarkable uniformity, growing no worse, because it has reached the bottom, and improving so slowly as to be scarcely perceptible.

There is some improvement to be noted in some branches of trade, among which we may instance choice northern oats—scarce and in good demand to fill orders. Choice timothy hay, of which there is none in market, and bran and provisions are steady and firm at quotations. Flour is full stocked and quiet with demand principally for low grades. Meal is dull and selling 15c off this week. Butter is steady with plenty of medium and no choice in market. Eggs are scarce, firm and in demand at 17c/18c. Chickens are in light supply and fair demand at $2 25c/3 25.

Freights are plenty and rates steady—17c per buh and 35c dry bbl to New Orleans; hay 30c per ton.

THE MARKET.

Our friends should bear in mind that the prices here given are usually for sales from first hands in round lots. In filling orders and for broken lots it is necessary to charge an advance over these figures.

FLOUR.

The market rules heavy and dull with full stocks of all kinds, and demand generally for low and medium grades. Sales were 200 barrels on orders $4 75/5 25; 600 barrels various grades $4 75/5 00; 100 barrels XXXX $5 25; 175 barrels $5 00/5 25; 100 barrels XXX $5 25; 200 barrels city $6 50/7 50.

HAY.

There is considerable inquiry for choice timothy and none in market. A few cars would find sale to fill orders. Mixed and low grades are plenty and neglected. We note sales of 4 cars mixed timothy $14 00/16 25; 1 car choice mixed delivered $15 00; 2 cars good mixed delivered $15 00.

CORN.

The market is very quiet—demand and supply about equal. Very little of either. Prices are quoted a shade lower. We note sales of 1 car white mixed in sacks delivered, 65c; 1 car white in bulk on track, 58c; 3 cars mixed in sacks delivered, 65c.

OATS.

We note a better feeling in the market and an increased demand for choice Northern of which there is not enough arriving to supply the demand. Southern Illinois oats are plenty and hard to sell. We note sales of 1 car Southern Illinois in sacks delivered, 40c; 200 sacks choice Northern, 45c; 1 car Southern Illinois delivered in sacks, 40c; 1 car white mixed in sacks delivered, 40c; 1 car mixed Galena in bulk on track, 40c.

MEAL.

The supply is large and the demand limited. Country meal sold to-day 15 cents below last week's quotations. City meal is firm and in fair demand to fill orders. Sales were 200 barrels country steam dried delivered, $3 25; 100 barrels City steam dried, $3 25.

BRAN.

The demand is fair at quotations, and only a limited supply offering. We note sales of 200 sacks delivered, $10/10 50; 1 car in sacks delivered, $16 50.

BUTTER.

Choice Northern continues scarce and in active demand. Southern Illinois and medium Northern is in full supply and neglected. We note sales of 300 pounds Southern Illinois, 20c/22c; 500 pounds Northern, 24c/26c; 10 tubs choice Northern, 27c/28c; 5 tubs common Northern, 25c; 5 tubs common Northern, 25c; 4 tubs Southern Illinois, 21c/24c; 5 tubs choice Northern, 26c/27c.

EGGS.

The market is bare, and shipments would find ready sale on arrival at 17c/18c. We note sales of 500 dozen, 13c/17c; 200 dozen, 17c/18c.

CHICKENS.

The market is bare to-day. There is a fair demand for both young and old at $2 25c/3 00 according to size, and $3 25 for old hens. We note sales of 3 coops young $2 50/2 75; 2 coops old hens $3 25.

FRUIT.

The market is quiet, very little of anything offering except apples, and no excitement in them. We note sales of 200 barrels $2 00/2 50; 50 boxes peaches 50c.

PROVISIONS.

The market is steady and firm. Stocks all sold. Sales were 10,000 pounds shoulders, 9c; 6000 pounds clear sides, 13c; 3000 pounds clear sides, 13c/14c; 1000 pounds plain hams, 13c.

CABBAGE.

The market is overstocked at present. We note sales of 600 heads, 8c; 500 heads, 8 cents.

RIVER AND WEATHER.

—The river last evening was 18 feet on the gauge, having fallen 9 3/5 inches during the previous 48 hours.

—The weather continues clear and is warm in the sunlight and cool in the shade.

—Business seems to be improving slowly.
